LOCAL BRIEFS.

Read executive notice elsewhere.
—$1.50 buys the Weekly News AND HERALD and the Semi-Weekly Atlanta Journal for one year.
—We call special attention to R. Brandt's advertisement; he always has special attention.
—J. D. McCarley & Co. call special attention to seed potatoes, fancy groceries, etc. Read their ad.

—You can get the Semi-Weekly Atlanta Journal and the Weekly News AND HERALD for $1.50.

J. B. Clark, Peoria, Ill., says: "Surgeons wanted to operate on me for piles, but I cured them with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is a reliable for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. McMaster Co."

—The official report of the weather bureau shows that December was a very cold month and that on 28 days of the month the temperature was below the freezing point.

—Friday was the anniversary of the birth of Gen. R. E. Lee, and was observed as a holiday in many places throughout the South. The day was not observed in any way here.

—As gardeners are beginning to think of preparing for planting their gardens it will be well for them to know that at McMaster Co.'s they can get Laureth's garden seed and union sets.

Mr. J. Sheer, Sedalia, Mo., saved his child's life by One Minute Cough Cure. Doctors had given her up to die with croup. It's an infallible cure for croup, colds, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and throat and lung troubles. Resolves at once. McMaster Co.

—Resolves for Mr. J. W. Seigler a continuance of the patronage of those in town and country who are in need of hardware of any kind. In his advertisement to-day he gives a partial list of his stock, and he wants his friends to call on him.

—The town council is having some much needed work done on the streets and the appearance of the streets is greatly improved and the filling up of washed and rough places in the sidewalks has added to the comfort of bicyclists and pedestrians.

—Both the Semi-Weekly Atlanta Journal and the Weekly News AND HERALD will be sent for the price of one paper to those who pay in advance.

Miss Annie E. Gunning, Tyre, Mich., says: "I suffered a long time from dyspepsia; lost flesh and became very weak. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure completely cured me. It digests what you eat and cures all forms of stomach trouble. It never fails to give immediate relief in the worst cases. McMaster Co."

—As a result of the Christmas examinations last Davidson College Mr. D. W. Richardson, of Nelson, Fairfield County, stands first in the sophomore class. The fine record that this young man is making in his college course is a source of great gratification to his friends, and he is to be congratulated upon his success.

—We have a scholarship in the Charlotte Business College which we wish to sell. The college is an excellent one, and by taking our scholarship, some young lady or young man would have an unusual opportunity of getting a thorough business training. We call attention to their advertisement, which appears to-day.

"I was nearly dead with dyspepsia, tried doctors, visited mineral springs, and grew worse. I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me. It digests what you eat. Cures indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn and all forms of dyspepsia. McMaster Co."

—John H. McMaster & Co. wish to remind their customers that they have in stock everything that they could need in the way of drugs, perfumery, patent medicines and such things as are handled in drug stores. Prescriptions are filled at all hours and they are ready to supply their friends with anything they need in the drug line.

—A special to The State on Friday contained the news of the sudden death at Ora, Laurens county, of Mr. William Bryson. He dropped dead while walking in the yard on Wednesday afternoon. The deceased was a relative of Messrs. Thos. Bryson and Jas. L. Bryson of this place. He had reached his 76th year, and leaves several children.

—The funeral of Mrs. D. Wyatt Aiken, who died in Atlanta on Tuesday morning, took place in Greenwood on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Aiken was a sister-in-law of Dr. W. E. Aiken and was a woman whose character was strong and beautiful. She was taken sick while visiting her sister, Mrs. Bonie, in Atlanta, and her death was sudden and unexpected.

—The standing committee appointed recently to be in charge of the next State fair have been published in The State, and two Fairfield men are among those appointed to act on these committees. Mr. J. G. Mobley has been appointed on the legislative committee, and on the premium list committee Mr. J. G. Wollings' name appears. All of the committees will hold a meeting in Columbia on February 7th.

—A meeting of Mt. Zion Society was held in the court house Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. This meeting was called for the special purpose of having a bill introduced in the Legislature providing for an election of trustees for this school district.

—Messrs. J. Q. Davis, J. C. Caldwell and G. H. McCarley were appointed as a committee to see that the bills introduced.

—From the Attorney General's report the Yorkville Enquirer has gathered some statistics of crime in the sixth judicial circuit. The following is the record of Fairfield county for the past year, as published in the Enquirer: In Fairfield county there were 13 "two bit," 11 discharges, 1 misdemeanor, 22 convictions, and 7 acquittals. Fairfield had 8 dispensary cases. In 5 the grand jury returned "no bill," 2 were discontinued, and 1 resulted in conviction.

—Mr. J. P. Jones, of Longwood, sent to The News and Herald a huge turnip weighing 7 lbs. 1 oz. It is a

CROUP

Mothers, when your children are attacked by the dreadful croup, you need not despair; Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will relieve and cure them at once. You can always depend on this marvelous remedy; it always cures.

Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP

Will cure Croup without fail. Doses are small and pleasant to take. Doctors recommend it. Price 25 cts. At all druggists.

splendid firm turnip and is a curiosity. Judging from this specimen of his gardening, Mr. Jones would stand a good chance of carrying off the special prize to be given at the next State fair for the best garden products. This is the second mammoth turnip that has been sent to this office this winter. The first was sent by Mr. R. H. Jennings.

Mrs. R. Churchill, Bertha, Va., says: "Our baby was covered with running sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." A specific for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. McMaster Co.

—The Winnsboro hotel, of which Mr. W. A. Beatty has for two years been proprietor, will in a short time pass into new hands, and Mr. Wheeler, or Prosperity, will take charge. Mr. Beatty has run the hotel most successfully but finds it necessary, on account of his health, to give it up. It is expected that the new proprietor will arrive this week to take charge of the hotel. Mr. Beatty and his family will return to their home on Main street, within the new proprietor arrives.

—A recent issue of the A. R. Presbyterian contains a letter from Rev. J. A. Smith, who for six years was pastor of the A. R. P. Church at White Oak, and who recently accepted a call to the church at Wrens, Ga. Mr. Smith's friends in this county will be glad to learn that he is much pleased with his new home and that he and his family were given a very warm welcome by the people of his new charge. In his letter he says that the years of his pastorate in White Oak were the happiest and pleasantest of his life.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers purify the blood, clean the liver, invigorate the system. Famous Little Pills for constipation and liver troubles. McMaster Co.

—The alumni association of the South Carolina College is to prepare a record of the alumni of this old institution and The State on Monday contained an account of the preliminary steps that have been taken towards this undertaking. An editorial staff has been appointed and Professor R. Means Davis has been made editor-in-chief, and several able men will be his assistants in this arduous task. A circular letter has been sent to the alumni and the work will no doubt receive the hearty co-operation of all. Among the alumni who have been appointed as a special advisory committee, appear the names of two Fairfield men, Capt. Thomas M. Lyles, of the class of 1831, and Mr. G. H. McMaster, of the class of 1830.

Much Greater Than 1899. The receipts of the Winnsboro post office, from the sale of stamps and stamped envelopes, are as follows: 1898.....$2,944 46 1899.....$3,187 91

It will be seen that the receipts for the year 1899 are much greater than for the preceding year.

The Carolina Teachers' Journal. At the meeting of the school superintendents, held in Columbia on Monday, the following resolution was adopted, among others:

Whereas a State educational journal is of very great value to the educational interests of a State, Resolved, That we heartily approve the efforts of Mr. J. Frank Joseph, of Winnsboro, S. C., in the establishment of the Carolina Teachers' Journal, and recommend the same to our teachers as an educational journal for them to subscribe to.

As will be seen by the following item, taken from the Charlotte Observer, a negro who has been wanted by the Winnsboro police for some time has at last been arrested and is now awaiting trial in the jail:

Paul Johnston, colored, of Winnsboro, S. C., spent last night in the Tomb. It came about in this way: Yesterday a telegram came to the chief of police from the sheriff of Fairfield County, S. C., ordering the arrest of Johnston, who was working on Mr. McAdams' farm, near the city. Constable J. A. Porter went out and arrested Johnston. Last night Deputy Sheriff D. E. McDowell, of Fairfield County, came after the prisoner. He is wanted at Winnsboro for leading in a negro row there Christmas day.

REMARKABLE RESCUE. Mrs. Michael Curtiss, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself bettered from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at McMaster Co.'s drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

ARRESTED IN CHARLOTTE. As will be seen by the following item, taken from the Charlotte Observer, a negro who has been wanted by the Winnsboro police for some time has at last been arrested and is now awaiting trial in the jail:

Paul Johnston, colored, of Winnsboro, S. C., spent last night in the Tomb. It came about in this way: Yesterday a telegram came to the chief of police from the sheriff of Fairfield County, S. C., ordering the arrest of Johnston, who was working on Mr. McAdams' farm, near the city. Constable J. A. Porter went out and arrested Johnston. Last night Deputy Sheriff D. E. McDowell, of Fairfield County, came after the prisoner. He is wanted at Winnsboro for leading in a negro row there Christmas day.

As will be seen by the following item, taken from the Charlotte Observer, a negro who has been wanted by the Winnsboro police for some time has at last been arrested and is now awaiting trial in the jail:
